

Abstract

In this article, we give sufficient conditions for the existence of solutions for an integral equation of fractional order with multiple time delays in Banach spaces. Our main tool is a fixed point theorem of Mönch type associated with measures of noncompactness. Our results are illustrated by an example. © 2012 Texas State University - San Marcos