

Abstract

In this paper, we prove the existence of solutions for an initial value problem for a hyperbolic differential equation involving the Caputo fractional derivative. We apply the method associated with the technique of measures of noncompactness and the fixed point theorem of Mönch type